A retreat to Borrego Ranch Resort & Spa in Southern California's Anza-Borrego Desert could be just the thing to cure the winter doldrums this year, and if you book by November 1, you'll save 20% on standard rates through the end of the year.

Borrego Ranch Resort and Spa

After a $10 million revamp spearheaded by former Miraval COO Joseph DeNuoci, the resort will open its doors November 1 and will feature a full-service spa and Tom Fazio Signature Golf Course. Introductory rates for Deluxe Kings start at $295 per night; private, one-bedroom casitas go for $355.
